This is a stupid law. If I own the pictures (either cuz I took them myself or cuz u sent them to me), then why can't I do whatever I want to with MY PROPERTY? It is not against the law to put someone's name & info on the internet. All kinds of "people finder" websites do this. Nor is it illegal to put someone's picture on the internet. But when you combine the two, it somehow is illegal? That makes no sense. The Govt has no business telling me what to do with MY property!! Copyright law is well settled in American and international law. This law would upend that. Plus, it would create a prior restraint on someone's speech based simply on the assumption that someone's feelings might be hurt. Content-based restriction of speech must survive strict scrutiny. This law could not survive a strict scrutiny review. Preventing hurt feelings is not a compelling governmental reason, otherwise we will need a lot more laws on the books. See U.S. v. Playboy Entertainment Group, 529 U.S. 803 (2000) (Government's interest in criminalizing speech that inflicts emotional distress is not a compelling one). See also U.S. v. In the wake of a Florida bill to criminalize revenge porn (which died after failing to receive a final vote before the Florida legislative session ended), a California state senator has introduced Senate Bill 255. SB255, as introduced by Sen. Anthony Canella (R-Ceres) would make it a misdemeanor to engage in a wide variety of acts associated with "revenge porn" — the practice of sharing nude photos of someone in order to sate a fleeting desire for revenge.

this guy was never dead. it would be more accurate to say the heart stopped beating and that a machine took over instead. As long as blood is being pumped and a machine breathes for you, you can stay like that forever. His situation is no different than people with mechanical hearts. He just happened to be unconscious while it went on. The "magic" was in having that machine nearby.

In case you idiots forgot, this case was NOT a sex case. It never was about sex, so investigating sex offenders was a waste of time. In ANY murder case, the main suspects are the people who know you and/or have a beef with you, not random strangers.

Confessions of a revenge pornographer

Johnny Swift • 2 years ago

One thought that comes to mind when i see all these fools claiming about how they're going to be able to track down the guys behind these photos is that, If it was that hard to maintain anonymity I don't think there'd be so many pirated movies floating around the net.

The MPAA has been chasing pirate movie sites like The Pirate Bay for years and years and it is still running. MPAA has MILLIONS of dollars plus Congress on its side, yet TPB still exists. So all the huffing and puffing by guys like Captain Obvious is just a bunch of crap.

Casey Anthony to give deposition in civil lawsuit, unlikely to plead the fifth

Johnny Swift • a year ago

Again, the ONLY person saying she can't plead the 5th is Matt Morgan. No judge has said this. And until a judge rules on it, it hasn't happened and this is all speculation by Morgan.

Johnny Swift • a year ago

where is the support for your claim that she won't take the 5th? I can't imagine any attny letting her give a depo since she could still be jeopardy for criminal charges. She obviously can't be charged with murder, but there are a bunch of other things she could possibly be charged with - state & federal. Show support for your statement. or stop lying.

The only person saying she can't take the 5th is attorney Matt Morgan, and that's just his opinion. No judge has ruled on this matter. All I've found so far are a bunch of re-posts of this headline above on a several other websites. But that is all. I've found no news article referring to any court ruling on her ability to take the 5th or not for this depo. my guess is that it will be up to Morgan to file a motion to compel and get a judge's ruling before Anthony will speak on anything.

Johnny Swift • a year ago

Big deal. Its not like a dime of any judgment will get paid. Florida has the second best judgment-debtor protections in the country (after TX). I should know. Creditors have been after me for YEARS, but I still have my house and car and boat and motorcycle, and gun collection /arsenal, and I owe MILLIONS to the biggest banks & companies in the U.S. Not like Anthony to some ham & egg attorney for a no-name random Mexican woman (assuming she loses). And assuming she is not able to discharge the debt via bankruptcy.

If she moves to Texas, she won't have to worry about her wages being garnished since that is illegal in Texas.

Luxury Condo Board Tells Tenant Flag Violates 'White Curtain' Rule

Johnny Swift • a year ago

If I lived there I would take a gun into the HOA office and dare them to make me remove my flag. But that's just me. I don't mind going to prison - been there, done that. But I do mind people telling me how to fly my flag. Yeah, I'm a crazy person. But so what? When you make stupid rules like that, you run the risk of making a guy like me mad at you.

I don't mind breaking the law and I don't mind going to jail for something I feel is important. The condo ass'n just has to decide if this is a fight worth getting hurt over.

A Tipping Point Against The Copyright Monopoly Regime Is A Lot Closer Than You Think

Johnny Swift • a year ago

Of course the U.S. can have trade sanctions against the EU. It has done so before. There is nothing purchased from the EU that is vital to the US economy that the large US companies cannot get elsewhere. On the other hand, Europe is fully dependent upon the US. Plus, the author seems to forget that there is no such thing as "Europe" as an economy. Europe is made up of very many small, legally and economically separate countries. If Greece does not respect US law, than Greece will be punished. Not Germany, or France. But just Greece (to use an example).

Each of the European countries is vulnerable to American pressure. The same is true for China. China is extremely vulnerable to American pressure. If the US refuses to buy Chinese products, 100's of millions of Chinese wake up the next morning without a job and food on the table. Then what happens? There will be a revolution and the Communist Govt. will be overthrown.

If the US refuses to buy from China, what will happen in the US? Wal-Mart will go closed for a little while. There won't be any cheap-ass baby toys to buy, or crappy made electronics. But there is nothing that we can't live without for a few months or even start making our own selves (like we used to).

America can easily turn its back on the world marketplace and still survive. But the world cannot turn its back on America. You people need to be able to buy our grain, our Hollywood movies, or medicines and medical devices, and our computer technology. And you also need to buy our used weapons (tanks, airplanes, missiles, etc.) because there is no other place on the world to get these items.

So Europe - and the rest of y'all, you need to remember who is running things in this world. Its Team America - World Police!

Florida Nurse Terrorized by US Marshals

To any FEDS reading this - I will kill you first and worry about the repercussions later once we all sort out who's whom. Being a former FED myself on a SORT team, I know all the tricks. I have armor for me and mine. If I suspect you are not what you are claiming to be, I will Stand My Ground with deadly force, if need be. You do not get to barge into my home uninvited simply because you wave a piece of tin or a piece of paper in my face.. My daughter or son will shoot you dead, if I don't first. Knock and be polite and you will receive politeness back. If you are legit, then 15 minutes spent chilling while I call in your creds to see if they're legit isn't gonna kill ya. And that's that. P.s. Don't bother trying to trace my posts since I use TOR and nearby unsecured WiFi at strip malls & neighbors. But u know me and u know how deadly serious I am when I am dealing with fake cops or those who don't properly ID themselves first. A couple of AFT SROts guys found that out the hard way when they thought there we being cool about "badges? We don't need no stinkin' badges / warrents!" lol

Stand Your Ground laws likely here to stay

stand your ground is race neutral so why are the knee grows all upset about it? maybe it is because those people just do not know how to act like human beings in public, thus, they are more liable to get shot by someone trying to stand their ground.

Thanks cuz Bin Ladin was never thought to be in his plane. But t he was, you don't think something would have happened? After all, we snuck into Pakistan and killed Bin Ladin without hesitation once the US knew where he was at.

American is running this world, and has been since the 1940's, and especially so since the collapse of the USSR. You either can get with the program or you can get run over. Cry all you want, but it is what it is. You have to take reality as it is, not how you wish it to be.
